CHILDREN'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A number of little young ladies and gentlemen of Morris Neighborhood resolved they would have a day of their own, permitting to old gentlemen above 15 or 16 years of age or to old maids above 18 or 14 years old to become members. They styled themselves the R. C. and S. V., but kept to themselves the meaning of these initials.

Last Saturday evening the club gave an entertainment at Mr. A. F. Hester's place, using his bowling room. It was filled up neatly—stage and curtains and auditorium richly arranged. The bill of fare presented by the young folks was very palatable. "Bridget's Story" and the "Quit Family" was ably aided by the Crane, Morris, Perry and Hamilton children and greatly enjoyed by the audience. The "Fairy Dance" was well rendered and drew forth a laugh when the fairies appeared singing to the air of "Captain Jack."

"We are a lot of Fairy Queens And food ourselves on corn and beans," etc. By request the entertainment is to be repeated this evening.

BULL'S EYES.

The shooters near the paper mill region thought it would be well for them to observe Decoration Day by exhibiting some of the skill in their line. They assembled for the purpose on the lawn belonging to Mr. Thomas's place, and commenced cracking away at the glass balls. During the shooting a man came up the lane toward the marksmen. He was warned to keep away out of danger, but apparently after considering the situation a few minutes, very unconcernedly approached the shooters, keeping directly in the range, doubtless thinking that was the safest place. Perhaps it is needless to say the man was unhurt. Out of a possible 25, the following is the score made:

HANDS OFF.

George Baldwin, who lives near the canal, is a good natured little fellow and everybody who knows him likes and speaks well of him. Even his school teacher does. The other day he attempted to ride "horse back" on the strand cable connected with the canal plane, and in the haste of getting on he fell. In his enthusiasm he overlooked the approach of one of the wheels of the cable plane over and it took his hands through underneath. He was not injured much, only receiving a hard squeezing.

George Walker, Reuben Graham and a lot of other boys, on one of the last hot days, came to the sudden conclusion that cleanliness was one of the great rules to be specially observed, and would carry it out by taking a wash in the canal. The boys had been laying up their pennies against the coming "Fourth," to be patriotically expended in ice cream and ice-creams on that day, and thus were kept from the glorious feast of our forefathers. Unlike the languages and oaths, the boys do not carry pennies in their pockets, and so were obliged to leave their treasure in their clothes on shore. While abating, one of those naughty youngsters came along and went through their clothes, much to the discomfiture of the Bloomfield boys.
